

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR EMPLOYMENT & TRAINING SUPPORT?

Did You Know PCCC Trust Offers
EDUCATION, TRAINING & EMPLOYMENT
IN BUNDABERG & GLADSTONE

Port Curtis Coral Coast Trust Limited (PCCC) represents the First Nations Bailai, Gurang, Gooreng Gooreng and Taribelang Bunda People Aboriginal Corporation RNTBC (PBC).

PCCC has an Employment and Training arm, dedicated to supporting all First Nations people into have sustainable and long-term roles. We have just recently worked with Shell QGC and have placed 8 PCCC people in Traineeships starting in January 2022. In the past 12 months we have supported over 50 peoples into roles across Bundaberg and Gladstone and are working with over 120 First Nations peoples in our case loads. We offer support in many ways including updating, and creating resumes, cover letters, interview preparation, support with online applications, direct links with local employers.

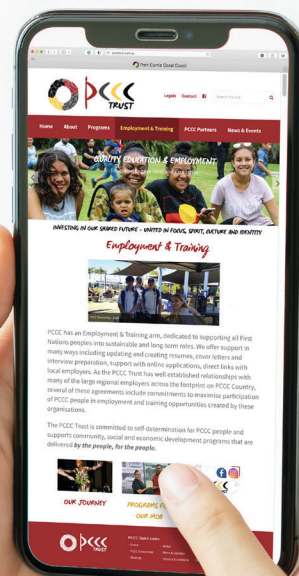

As the PCCC Trust has well established relationships with many of the large regional employers across the footprint of PCCC Country. Several of these agreements include commitments to maximise participation of PCCC People in employment and training opportunities created by these organisations.

The PCCC Trust is committed to self-determination for PCCC people and supports community, social and economic development programs that are delivered by the people, for the people.

If you or you know someone who is looking for employment and training or looking at a career change, please get in contact with Shay Pearce or the PCCC office to discuss your options.
