

START YOUR CAREER IN NATURAL GAS

TRAINEESHIPS IN MAINTENANCE NOW AVAILABLE CURTIS ISLAND LNG INDIGENOUS CAREERS PROGRAM

Shell's QGC project in partnership with Programmed's Indigenous Workforce Services, are looking to recruit local Gladstone Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander job seekers to undertake a 12-month traineeship in maintenance of an LNG plant, helping to kick-start your career in the natural gas industry.

Shell's QGC project is one of Australia's leading natural gas producers, focused on developing Queensland's world-class onshore natural gas reserves and is based on Curtis Island, off the coast of Gladstone.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN ABOUT

There are multiple traineeships available which will provide coaching to develop skills in safety, teamwork, exposure to mechanical and electrical teams and activities, and assist in the delivery of maintenance scheduling at an LNG plant.

The traineeships will be a mix of hands-on practical experience, as well as some classroom lessons. Most of the traineeship will be carried out on Curtis Island with the classroom experience to be held in Gladstone.

This is a great opportunity for successful candidates to receive training in a dynamic and challenging environment where our Goal Zero safety target will ensure safe delivery of our production targets.

You will be learning from experienced LNG professionals first hand, helping you to jump start your career in the natural gas industry. Your study will count towards a Certificate II in Engineering Production.

QUALITIES YOU'LL NEED

- ▶ A commitment to embracing Shell's safety culture
- ▶ A positive attitude, self-motivation and desire to learn new skills
- ▶ Ability to take direction from supervisors, and to ask questions
- ▶ Good listening and communication skills
- ▶ Interest in developing a career in the natural gas industry
- ▶ Ability to get to the ferry at the Marine Operating Terminal to travel to Curtis Island daily, as well as attend various training in the Gladstone region

The positions will only be open to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander applicants. The filling of these positions is intended to constitute an equal opportunity measure under section 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth), and 105 of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 (Qld).
