INTERACTIVE ENGAGEMENT DISPLAY (REQUIRED)

Dorrie Day 2026 places strong emphasis on meaningful, culturally safe and engaging experiences. We invite exhibitors and sponsors to go beyond the usual table or banner. Just as we encourage students and attendees to push themselves, we're inviting you to take on the challenge too!

Tell us about your interactive display and how it will:

- Share your organisation, services, and opportunities
- Create a welcoming, culturally safe space
- Encourage hands-on participation from students, families, and community
- Build genuine connections and network with other exhibitors

Get creative! Get hands-on! Storytelling, games, demonstrations, challenges, or any interactive idea. The sky's the limit for this outdoor event!

SPACE REQUIREMENTS

How much space will your interactive display require?

Please include dimensions where possible (e.g. 3m x 3m) and note any requirements such as:

- Power access
- Seating
- Audio-visual equipment
- Shade or layout considerations

COMMUNITY & NETWORKING IMPACT – BEST DISPLAY CHALLENGE

How will your interactive display excite, engage, and connect?

Tell us how your display will:

- Inspire curiosity and meaningful conversations with attendees
- Encourage participation, confidence, and shared learning
- Build connections and collaborate with other exhibitors

The most engaging and creative interactive display will go into the draw to win:

- Two nights' accommodation at Bargarra
- A day trip for two to Lady Musgrave Island

BE CREATIVE.
MAKE IT INTERACTIVE.
MAKE IT MEMORABLE!

RISK MANAGEMENT

INSURANCE

Do you have current Public Liability Insurance?

The event booklets are professionally designed and printed by Bundaberg graphic design business, Sugarcoat Creatives. They are distributed to schools and the wider community ahead of the event, and provided to exhibitors and students on the day. Attendees include students from Year 4 to 12 across schools in Gladstone, Bundaberg, and surrounding regions, both those preparing to leave school within the next 12 months and those continuing with full-time or vocational education. The booklets also reach the wider First Nations community attending the event.
